

Sport Makers

www.sportmakers.co.uk

Open to those 16+

It is completely free to apply, also at present Adidas are offering those that attend a course to receive Polo T-Shirts, Ruck Sack, Pin Badge and Sports Maker Wristbands and there are no obligations to carry on after the training; plus, there are hundreds of local opportunities to suit a wide range of skills and interests.

The benefits of becoming a Sports Maker include:

- Play sport – keep active through sport and help others get involved too;
- Choose which sports you get involved with, who you make it happen for and when you do it;
- It's rewarding – through Sports Makers, you can give something back to your community;
- Learn new skills – you'll learn lots of new skills and team up with other sporting organisations and clubs;
- Join in with London 2012 – you'll be part of the official London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic legacy. Inspired by the Games and their values, you'll be part of an army of 40,000 Sport Makers who'll help create new opportunities for lots more people to play sport.
- Supporting Evidence for those 16-25 FE/ HE Engagement
System (Volunteer Web) Government system through Sport England, Log of hours, can be printed off and utilised as evidence towards applications for
