1.5 Summoning Meetings of the Academic Board

1.5.1 Meetings of the Academic Board shall normally be held at least four times a year.

1.5.2 All meetings of the Board shall be summoned by the Secretary to the Board, who shall send to each member the agenda and supporting papers so that they may arrive at least three working days before the meeting.

1.5.3 The Secretary to the Board shall call a special meeting at any time at the request of the Chair or of any three or more voting members of the Board.

1.5.4 The agenda for any meeting shall be prepared by the Secretary to the Board in consultation with the Chair.

1.5.5 'The Agenda' shall appear as an item on the agenda to allow discussion of the agenda if desired.

1.5.6 Any voting member of the Board may submit items for inclusion in the agenda and must do so in writing to the Secretary at least seven days before the meeting is to take place, submitting appropriate supporting papers.

1.6 Responsibilities of the Board

1.6.1 Subject to the provisions of the Articles of Government, to the overall responsibility of the Governors, to the requirements, where appropriate, of validating and accrediting bodies, and to the responsibility of the Vice Chancellor, the Academic Board shall be responsible for considering the development of the academic activities of the University and the resources needed to support them and for advising the Vice Chancellor and the Board of Governors thereon.

1.6.1.1 The University of Worcester Higher Education Corporation's Power to Award Degrees derives from an Order made by the Privy Council in exercise of the powers conferred on them by section 76 of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 (a), dated 14th
March 1997. The awards are of the kind mentioned in paragraph (a) of section 76 (2) of the said Act.

1.6.1.2 The Corporation has delegated responsibility to the Academic Board for the procedures for the award of such qualifications.

1.6.1.3 The Academic Board has granted authority to the Academic Registrar of the University to administer the arrangements for the conferment of awards of the University upon individual students who have satisfied the requirements for conferment.

1.6.2 The Academic Board will take any action it considers necessary to protect the quality of taught courses and the standard of the University’s awards.

1.6.3 The Academic Board shall have the power to withdraw approval (or not to renew approval) if the University has evidence that a programme is no longer meeting minimum acceptable standards.

1.6.4 The Academic Board is responsible for advising the Vice Chancellor about general issues relating to research, scholarship, teaching and courses at the University including:

- the principles underlying and informing the academic regulatory framework, the regulatory framework itself and procedures for ensuring its probity
- the maintenance of academic standards and the validation and review of courses
- the approval of the University’s quality assurance procedures
- the approval of taught programmes of study leading to the awards of the University
- the consideration of proposals for new awards
- the content of the curriculum
- criteria for the admission of students
- the policies and procedures for assessment and examination of the academic performance of students
- the appointment and removal of external examiners
- the procedures for the award of qualifications and honorary academic titles
- the procedures for the expulsion of students for academic reasons

1.6.5 Advising on such other matters as the Board of Governors or the Vice Chancellor may refer to the Academic Board.

1.6.6 The Academic Board may delegate its responsibilities to a sub-committee.

1.7 Conduct of Business

1.7.1 The quorum of the Board shall be 50%.

1.7.2 All decisions shall be reached by a simple majority of those voting.
1.7.3 The Chair at any meeting shall have a vote as a member of the Board and also a casting vote.

1.7.4 The Secretary shall keep minutes of each meeting to include a complete record of all decisions reached by the Board. The minutes of each meeting shall be circulated to all members of the Board and shall be confirmed at the next regular meeting of the Board.

1.7.5 The Academic Board may establish such committees as it considers necessary for purposes enabling it to carry out its responsibilities. The number of members of any such committee and the terms in which they are to hold and vacate office shall be determined by the Academic Board.

1.7.6 The terms of reference and the membership of any committee established by the Board shall be determined by the Board and recorded in the minutes of the Board.

1.7.7 The Vice Chancellor shall be an ex-officio member of all Standing Committees and receive their papers. The Deputy Vice Chancellor shall similarly receive papers of all Standing Committees. The Secretary of the Academic Board shall receive all papers of Academic Board Standing Committees and their Sub-Committees and the right to attend all meetings of these bodies as an observer.

1.7.8 Each Standing Committee established by the Board shall have a Secretary provided by Registry Services or other Office who shall be responsible, in consultation with the Chair of the committee, for calling meetings and circulating agenda items.

1.7.9 The Secretary shall keep minutes of each meeting and circulate copies to all members of the committee.

1.7.10 Each Board and Standing Committee shall report its decisions and recommendations to the Board, normally by presenting a formal summary paper to the Board. Full minutes of each committee will be provided to the Secretary and placed on the University’s intranet.

1.7.11 The constitution of any Board or its committee established by the Academic Board may include representatives of the student body or of the teaching staff who are not themselves members of the Board.

1.7.12 Each Board or Committee established by the Academic Board may co-opt members for a meeting or an item on an agenda at the discretion of its Chair. These co-opted members may be invited to speak but may not vote. Where such co-options involve external consultants who receive a fee such co-options must be clearly identified in the minutes and each committee must submit to Academic Board for its June meeting a summary of its co-options undertaken through the year.

2. STANDING COMMITTEES OF THE ACADEMIC BOARD

The following are the Standing Committees of the Academic Board which shall effect the responsibilities subsequently detailed by making reports and recommendations to the Academic Board on matters which are referred to them by the Board or on matters which the committees consider should be brought to the attention of the Board.

6. To promote best practice in the operation and quality management of collaborative, flexible and distributed learning provision across University departments.
7. To report annually to AQSEC on the standing and academic health of educational partnerships and associated collaborative provision.

2.2. Institute Boards

Membership

The Board will be chaired by the Head of Institute; the membership of each institute board will reflect the size and nature of the institute but will include key chairs within the institute and institute representatives on central committees, with a facility for a small number of ‘ordinary’ members of the academic staff of the institute. There will also be a provision for a representative from ILS and student and support staff representatives. Student representation should be for two years to allow for continuity. The new student representative should be appointed before the end of the academic year and should shadow the incumbent student representative. Where there is sufficient postgraduate provision in the Institute there should be both undergraduate and postgraduate student representation. Institutes will be required to submit their proposed membership to Academic Board for approval.

Secretary: Academic Support Manager

Sub-Committees

Institute Boards may establish sub-committees, although all institutes will establish Institute Quality Assurance Committees. Proposals to establish sub-committees must be submitted to the Secretary of the Academic Board. Such sub-committees should include Institute Research and Knowledge Transfer and Learning and Teaching Committees unless it is decided that these matters should be managed either by the Institute Board itself or, in the case of Learning and Teaching, through the Institute Quality Committee.

Terms of Reference

1. To agree the Institute’s development plan and to monitor achievement against the objectives therein.

2. To maintain within the institute the quality assurance procedures and processes, established by AQSEC, on behalf of Academic Board.

3. To ensure that the policies and strategies approved by the Academic Board are implemented and monitored within the department.

4. To approve and oversee the implementation of a Scholarship, Research, Innovation and Enterprise strategy for the department.

5. To monitor and promote the enhancement of the quality of the student experience.

6. To monitor arrangements for admissions and recruitment to courses in the institute.
7. To assure the proper conduct of the assessment and examination of students, including the arrangements for examination boards with the institute.

8. To keep under review arrangements for membership of University committees.

9. To advise the Head of Institute on the resources needed to support the activities of the institute.

10. To serve as a forum for consultation on proposals relating to the academic regulations and procedures of the University, and the formulation of strategies and policies relating to the academic activities of the University.

11. To monitor regularly the full range of activities within the remit of the institute, including any research or specialist centres and to produce an annual report for the Academic Board.

12. Such other responsibilities as may be determined by the Academic Board.
